Principal's Message

As the new principal of Brebeuf College School, I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself to the many alumni who graduated from this school over the past 45 years. This is my 29th year in education and prior to my appointment to Brebeuf, I had the opportunity to work as a curriculum lead at the Ministry of Education and at the Toronto Catholic District School Board. I've also served as vice principal in three schools, including Brebeuf about 13 years ago.

It didn't take long for me to observe that there are many Brebeuf graduates who value maintaining a connection with classmates and with the school. Within a short period of time after my arrival, I had the pleasure of meeting a number of the alumni who teach here and alumni who volunteer to coach some of our teams. I've met alumni at school functions such as the Communion Breakfast and our talent show, Club Brebeuf. Even at our recent Grade 8 Open House and Grade 9 Curriculum night, I met alumni who have encouraged their own sons to become Brebeufians.

Even though the building is relatively new, there are still many things needed to support program delivery, co-curricular activities and the maintenance of our facilities. Over the years, alumni have provided generous support. Recently, the need arose to acquire some relatively expensive staging equipment to be used for Masses, dances and other functions. With significant help from the alumni association, we were able to make the purchase. I would like to thank the alumni for their ongoing support of Catholic education through the Brebeuf community. I look forward to meeting with alumni and hearing more of those interesting Brebeuf stories that have been shared over the years. Until then, I would like to wish all alumni and their families a blessed Christmas and all the very best in the New Year.

Alumni Update

As this newsletter indicates, there is a great deal happening at Brebeuf. In discussion with our new Principal, Anthony Azzopardi, the Alumni Association is launching a new fundraising campaign. We are asking all alumni to consider a contribution to the new "Brebeuf Technology Fund" to help fund the upgrading of computer labs and enhance the technological tools used by both staff and students. Please see the enclosed pledge card for further details.

On Saturday, April 25, 2009, all alumni are invited to return to Brebeuf for the Alumni Pub Night and 45th Anniversary celebrations. A special invitation is extended to alumni celebrating milestone anniversaries in the following years: 1968 & 1969 (40th Anniversary), 1973 & 1974 (35th Anniversary), 1978 & 1979 (30th Anniversary), 1983 and 1984 (25th Anniversary), 1988 & 1989 (20th Anniversary), 1993 & 1994 (15th Anniversary), 1998 and 1999 (10th Anniversary) and 2003 and 2004 (5th Anniversary). The festivities will begin with Mass at 6 p.m. followed by the Pub Night. Further details will be posted on the alumni website and emailed in the new year. We would appreciate hearing from any alumni willing to serve as a Year Rep – the time commitment is minimal and the success of the event will depend largely on the participation from each of the "honoured years". If you are interested in being a year representative, please contact Frank MacGrath '82 fmacgrath@gtigolf.com or Michael Da Costa '92 michael.dacosta@rogers.com

I would like to acknowledge the continued efforts of the Alumni Executive for their hard work on behalf of the alumni and to Kevin Doyle '92 & Mike Da Costa for coordinating the floor hockey tournament. Special thanks to volunteers Dennis Tobin '79, Bryon Di Sera '81 and Kieran Kennedy '05 who were instrumental in resurrecting the alumni hockey tournament last May.

On page 8 of the newsletter there is a list of Brebeuf community members who passed away during 2008. I would like to especially acknowledge the passing of Edward "Ted" Belton, father of Greg '76 and Patrick '86. Ted and his late wife Joan were driving forces behind Brebeuf, especially the Brebeuf Benefactors and the Brebeuf Ladies Guild. The Beltons were largely responsible for a great deal of the initial forays Brebeuf took into fundraising, particularly in the 1970's and 1980's.

Merry Christmas to all alumni and best wishes for 2009.

Frank MacGrath '82
Chairman, Brebeuf Alumni Association.

Brebeuf News

Club Brebeuf

On November 7th the Atrium at Brebeuf was transformed into a night club setting for the dual purposes of showcasing student talent and raising funds for the Children's Wish Foundation. More than 350 students, staff, alumni & guests enjoyed a variety of performances at the 4th Annual Club Brebeuf which raised $4,500.00.

Retirements

After teaching French at Brebeuf since 1985, Jacques Carron retired in 2008. Jacques was an excellent educator, spending countless hours ensuring his classes would be prepared and interesting. Jacques taught both the regular grade 9-13 courses as well as immersion students in the Extended French programme. Always ready with a joke and a smile, he endeared himself to students and staff alike. We wish Jacques a fruitful season in the "garden" of retirement.

Brebeuf Jazz Hits High Note

2008 has been an exceptional year for the Brebeuf Jazz program beginning in February, in the Kiwanis Music Festival. Fear of Romance, the jazz combo, left the adjudicator speechless with their original compositions and excellent musicianship.

BC Jazz, the stageband, dominated their category, scoring an amazing 90% to take 1st place and were later awarded the Francis Arrigo scholarship for best in jazz.

At the regional finals of MusicFest Canada, both groups received award winning invitations to the all Canadian Finals in Ottawa. Fear of Romance was the first to perform and received glowing reports from all four judges, not only on their talent and musicianship, but their ability to write all original material, leading to the silver medal.

BC Jazz amazed the judges with their skilled articulation and jazz interpretations and took home a gold medal.

The Music Department would like to thank the Brebeuf Alumni Association for their assistance in helping deserving students participate in this extraordinary musical experience.

Sports Update

A Tribute To Father Don Beaudois S.J.

Father Don Beaudois S.J. is one of the most respected teachers in Brebeuf's history. At the October, 2008 communion breakfast, the Brebeuf community celebrated Fr. Beaudois' 50th anniversary as a Jesuit priest. Rado Krevs of the Brebeuf staff made a special presentation: "This year, twelve Jesuits of Upper Canada celebrated their fifty years of Ministerial Priesthood. Among those twelve was Fr. Donald F. Beaudois, who as you are aware celebrated mass for us today. Fr. Beaudois, today the Brebeuf Community, in a very formal way congratulates you for your fifty years of service to Christ and His Church. May the Lord whom you have served faithfully for these fifty years grant you His choicest blessings. As a token of our appreciation in serving the Brebeuf Community, the Alumni and Staff of this school honour you with a school jacket, which we hope you will wear with the Jesuit spirit and motto "For the Greater Glory of God".

When alumni were asked to share their favourite "Beaudois" memories, we received many replies - Here are a few:

Hollie Doyle (former staff): "In the late 80's someone attached a sign to Fr Beaudois' lab. It simply said "Diatribes in Progress". He found it after half a day and tore it off the door, went back into the prep room and was heard to roar with laughter. He kept 3 coloured sheets in his desk, one red, one green and one yellow. Whenever someone gave a particularly brutal answer in Chem, he would pull them out, ask the poor deflated student to name each colour, which they dutifully did. Then he would roar as only he could do: "Good, you can be a truck driver, cause you'll never be a chemist!!"

Steve Bujna '74: "Fr. Beaudois was my home room teacher for Grade 12. We had him for first period math at 8:20 in the a.m. Can you picture that? Beaudois first thing every morning? Sheeesh! One of his favourite sayings was: "Get your 50 and get out!" Well, I guess the man has his "50" and is deservedly going to "get out" and retire! God Bless!"

Rick Cleveland '75: "I was taking Calculus with Father Beaudois in Grade 13. A very difficult subject for someone with no inherent aptitude in mathematics. First term mark in the 50's; second term mark in the mid-30's; and I was facing a failing grade at year end. With great trepidation, I spoke to Father Beaudois in March and promised him I'd work my tail off for the balance of the year if he would only give me the benefit of the doubt and be open to the remote possibility of a pass at year's end. With help and encouragement along the way from Father Beaudois, I managed to gain enough comprehension of Calculus to pull off a mark in the low 80's in third term, which gave me an overall grade of 50% for the course! He was tough, but fair-minded. He taught me that hard work will be rewarded."

Paul Adams '71: "(when handed the microphone at mass)..." I don't need that thing! Listen fellas!"

Mike Daoust '67: "When a young Peter Lee joined the teaching staff at Brebeuf, he was given a tour of the school. When he met Father Beaudois, Father asked "And what grade will you be in Peter?"

Tony Dean '82: "Mommy never bought me a chocolate cake" "Who stole my chalk chuck?" "That's right fella!"

Evan Lopes '82: "When I started at Brebeuf, I was fresh from Brazil and spoke little English. He would use me as an example to the rest of the class when I would actually get an answer correct. He would admonish the others by saying "this boy comes from _____ and he can get the answer!". To my knowledge, over the years, he inserted just about every Latin country into this sentence with exception of Brazil! Truth be said, he was one of the best teachers I ever had! I still think of him fondly and have told many stories of him to my son who is now taking chemistry! Can you memorize the first 30 elements of the periodic table?"

Steve Bujna '74: "My earliest memory of Fr. Beaudois was of a stern, flat topped, drill sergeant prowling the lunch hall, striking terror in the hearts of all who did not know him better. We were all certain he regularly dined on miscreant grade nine's. Boy, were we wrong! True "The Beauds" as we affectionately referred to him, held forth with a strict, no-nonsense approach to teaching, nobody cared more for the young minds being molded in his classes. He tutored me in calculus before school for a month, ensuring my entrance to university. Once I met him walking on a Saturday afternoon and he dragged me back to the residence to chat cordially over a couple of beers. But my fondest memory came in grade twelve when as our home room teacher we upheld the tradition of presenting him with a cake and singing "Happy Birthday". He choked out a brief "Thank You" and left the room as the tears welled in his eyes. What a man! No teacher ever left a more lasting impression on me. Thanks Don."

Keeping The Bulls In The Pen

By Marc Vittorio '01

The Alumni Athletic Centre, established through the generosity of our alumni, continues to pay substantial dividends to students and faculty. Affectionately known as the "Bull Pen", the facility is a direct result of alumni monies and time being donated back to the school. "Without the alumni's generous donation to build this training facility, it would not have been possible at all," says Alex Sabatini class of '93 and current staff member. "I enjoy the 'Bull Pen' because it gives me the chance to learn how to work out properly and the environment is great because I can do it in school without having to go to an expensive gym" says, Michael Tucciarone (grade 11 student).

For many older alumni the weight room they recall was nothing more than a universal weight machine beside the dressing rooms in the old Gym. Unfortunately these facilities limited student interest and provided very little variety and space for students to work out. Since 2005, the students, sports team members, and staff have had a proper weight facility in which to train and work out. The Bull Pen encompasses two adjacent rooms housing a complete gym and a second room with a number of spinning bikes. Paul Solarski, Brebeuf Athletic Director, notes that the facility allows for fitness classes for the students on a daily basis. "There are 3 periods out of 4, this semester alone, where classes are held". In addition "the students can join early morning or after school programs whereby they can just work out, which is a great thing because the gentlemen here want to be able to start learning how to work out properly" explains Solarski.

It is projected that either through classes or enrollment in the "Bull Pen" after school program more than 300 students will utilize the fitness facilities formally throughout the year. As a direct result to the funding provided by the alumni, the students are benefiting greatly in learning the principles of fitness outside of the formal gym class and within the borders of the school. The facility provides for students to work out before and after school, thereby allowing another positive social outlet in the school to build the Brebeuf community.

It is no coincidence that since the Bull Pen opened several years ago the school has won 34 championship/ finalist banners to deepen the colours of red that drape from the rafters of the gym. The students and staff of the school continually send praise out to the kindness of the alumni for all their dedication and support throughout the years.
