

Principal's Message

Dear Alumni,

Alma Mater literally means "mother who nourishes". By extension an alumnus is one who has received nourishment. Your alma Mater, Brebeuf College, has given you intellectual and spiritual nourishment. I'm certain, however, that not even your teachers, counsellors, and coaches could have imagined that those whom they nourished would one day nourish their school as freely and abundantly as you do. Certainly, over the years you have supported your school in a variety of material ways. Here is only a partial list of the projects and initiatives you have funded in whole or in part:

- new equipment for the Alumni Athletic Center;
- the Brebeuf History Boards commemorating our school's first forty years of service;
- the Brebeuf News Network (BNN), a closed circuit television system for school announcements and as a support for media arts courses;
- plaques for the Jesuit Commemorative Library and the Presentation Brothers Chaplaincy Center;
- funding to purchase equipment for the Art, Music & Science Departments;
- the donor wall recognizing the generosity of our more than 400 alumni benefactors;
- the production of the 40th Anniversary yearbook
- equipment such as soccer nets and table tennis tables;
- equipment for the library;
- a CD copying machine for promoting the school's music and computer programs;
- funding to help organize the Solemn Blessing and Official Opening;
- a variety of new scholarships and academic awards to honour former staff and deceased alumni;

But alumni generosity extends far beyond material support. Your creativity and ideas have helped us enrich the lives of our students. Ultimately, your generosity can only be measured truly by your level of engagement, your care, and genuine affection for your alma mater. You are at once a testament to Brebeuf's proud past, a witness to its present excellence, and a window into its future. Your example continues to be a beacon and an inspiration for all Brebeufians. God bless you and the work you do for your school.

Nick D'Avella,
Principal

Alumni Athletic Centre

by Eric Guy '82

The financial contributions of alumni have enabled the renovation, expansion and upgrade of the school's strength & conditioning facility. This support permitted the Physical Education Department to replace aging & deteriorating machinery and acquire more functional equipment to provide the students with a comprehensive strength training and cardio-vascular conditioning facility.

Since this investment Brebeuf has launched an after-school strength & conditioning club affectionately referred to as the 'Bull'- Pen. Many varsity sports teams (e.g. basketball, cross-country, track & field and rugby) use the facilities every day. Perhaps the best testament of the impact of these facilities has been the expansion of enrolment in several new sections of Physical Education & Health Classes dedicated to strength training & conditioning each semester. The generosity of the Alumni has truly buoyed the pride and camaraderie among the students and lead them to re-name this facility the Alumni Athletic Centre.

Alumni on Staff

Two more alumni have recently joined the Brebeuf staff, increasing the number of Brebeuf grads to almost 20% of the teaching faculty.

Brad Chin You '98 - religion and coaches senior hockey

Nick Galatianos '00 - math, religion and coaches rugby

In Addition, Caitlin Rogers, daughter of Greg Rogers '72 (and former staff), is an Educational Assistant.

COMMUNION BREAKFAST

Father Winston Rye SJ, Principal from 1979-1984, returned to Brebeuf on Sunday, October 1 for a revived tradition - the Communion Breakfast. Over 150 staff, students, and their families attended Mass in the theatre followed by breakfast in the school's atrium. Alumni will be invited to attend the 2007 communion breakfast.

BROTHER LAWRENCE MAHER FUND FOR AFRICA

No Brebeufian epitomized being a "Man for Others" more than Brother Lawrence Maher. In Brother's tenure as Principal, no student ever lacked a uniform, money for an excursion, or a second chance. As Provincial of the Canadian Province of the Presentation Brothers, Brother Lawrence oversaw the order's expansion into Ghana, Africa. At every First Friday Mass, Brebeufians collect money for the Brothers' newest school in Yendi, Ghana, an extremely poor area. Anyone who was ever touched by Brother's kindness and who would like to donate to the Brother Lawrence Fund to help this school can send a cheque payable to the Presentation Brothers to: c/o Brother Spencer, 211 Steeles Ave. E., Toronto, ON M2M 3Y6. Tax receipts will be issued.

JESUITS & PRESENTATION BROTHERS PRESENCE ENDURES

Fr. Winston Rye SJ and Fr. Len Altilia SJ return often for school Masses. In 2005, Mr. Shawn Moore SJ, a Jesuit scholastic, started visiting Brebeuf every Friday to talk to classes, work with student leaders and provide a Jesuit presence. Our link with the Presentation Brothers is exemplified by the daily presence of Brother Henry Spencer FPM, who works closely with the school Chaplaincy team.

ACADEMIC AWARDS NIGHT

Brebeuf has revived the tradition of recognizing outstanding students at an evening assembly with parents. These students bear witness to our motto "Studio Gradum Faciant" and demonstrate the strong academic foundation of Brebeuf. Several of these awards honour Brebeufians who helped shape our school:

- Fr. Robert Meagher SJ Award (highest average Gr. 9)
- Fr. Clement Crusoe SJ Award (highest average Gr. 10)
- Fr. Kenneth Casey SJ Award (highest average Gr. 11)
- Ned Harrington Award (outstanding achievement Gr. 9)
- Dr. Bob Lato '68 Award (most improvement Gr. 10)

ECHON 40th ANNIVERSARY YEARBOOKS

A limited number of these yearbooks, chronicling in pictures the school's first forty years, and expertly designed by Bill Wood '76, are available for $10 (including shipping). Send a cheque payable to Brebeuf Alumni Association to Michael Da Costa, 211 Steeles Ave. E., Toronto, M2M 3Y6.

Class of '86 20th Reunion

By Ron De Appolonia '86

On June 17th the class of 1986 met at the Madison Pub for their 20th year reunion. The reunion was filled with good humour and stories about our time at Brebeuf. Everyone felt that too much time had passed for this get together and we all felt that the group should get together more often, as many traded contact information or made plans to reconnect in the future.

Alumni from around the globe came to this reunion - Eddie Ho and Selwyn Au-Yeung flew in from Hong Kong, and Jeff Fish came in from Nova Scotia (my apologies in advance if I have missed anyone else). A big thanks to these guys for making the journey to meet up with old friends.

I encourage all other graduating years that you follow suit and plan your own class reunions - it is well worth it. When the class of '86' got together, it felt as though our friendships simply continued from where they left off. This bond speaks volumes about the experience we shared at Brebeuf.

Special thanks to Pat Belton for launching the event and thanks to all those who helped find "lost alumni" or extend invitations to other classmates. Your efforts made the evening a memorable one.
