

Order of St. Jean de Brebeuf Inductees

By: Steve White '81,

Chair, Order of Saint Jean de Brebeuf Selection Committee

The Order of Saint Jean de Brebeuf (OSJB) recognizes the outstanding accomplishments of members of the Brebeuf Community. Individuals who have dedicated their lives to live as "Men and Women for Others". Initiated in 2012, the third "class" of inductees was formally recognized at the 50th Anniversary Gala in May, 2014, with the induction of the following individuals:

Fr. J. Winston Rye, S.J.

Father Rye is a cornerstone of the Brebeuf community. He has held many official roles at Brebeuf and remains a loyal and dedicated friend and patron of the school. After teaching at Brebeuf in the early 1970's, Fr. Rye returned in 1978 as the Rector and in 1979 became Principal, overseeing the transition of Brebeuf's administration from the Jesuit Fathers to the Presentation Brothers in 1984. Fr. Rye also served as Principal at Loyola High School, Gonzaga High School and St. Bonaventure's High School and was Director at The Martyrs' Shrine in Midland, Ontario.

Brother Lawrence Maher

Brother Maher always thought about others first and how he might be of service to them. As Principal from 1984 until 1996 he was a father figure to many in the Brebeuf community, be they staff, students, alumni, parents or friends of the school. He provided leadership in so many ways including the transition from the Jesuits to the Presentation Brothers; most importantly he exemplified the spiritual side of the Brebeuf community. He was committed to the ideals of Catholic education and influenced so many by his caring nature. He had a unique way of recognizing each individual's personal needs and attributes. Brother Maher always described Brebeuf as a "school with a difference"; Brother Maher made a tremendous difference to so many Brebeufians. Accepting on behalf of Brother Maher was his long time colleague & friend Brother Henry Spencer.

Rosemary Lavery

Rosemary's dedication, professionalism, and selfless nature have earned the respect of both teachers and students. Rosemary's commitment to her students is evident not just as an educator, but also through the different roles that she has assumed, including moderator for Student Council, DECA, and Curling. She has also given countless hours of her time in organizing events that recognize the success of students, teachers, alumni, and the community. These include graduation ceremonies, athletic banquets, retirement functions, Music Department excursions, Alumni functions, and much more. She has been instrumental in organizing events to raise awareness and funds for the Children's Wish Foundation and for the Pulmonary Hypertension Association. Rosemary's longstanding commitment to Brebeuf and to community service reflects the true meaning of "women for others".

Brebeuf Celebrates 50 Years

The Brebeuf community gathered in May to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Brebeuf College School. On Friday May 2nd, more than 500 alumni returned to 211 Steeles Ave. for the Alumni Pub & Open House. Graduates from the late 1960's right up to the Class of 2013 gathered to renew old friendships, visit the 'decade rooms' and tour the "new" Brebeuf. It was great to see so many alumni in attendance as well as a large number of current and former staff. Grads traveled from near and far (including northern Ontario, western Canada, the United States and as far away as China & Australia).

More than 250 Brebeufians gathered on Saturday, May 3rd at Le Parc for the 50th Anniversary Dinner and the induction of the 2014 Order of St. Jean de Brebeuf recipients. Special thanks to Steve White '81, Chair of the OSJB Selection Committee and to our emcee, Bill Hutchison '75 of CTV News and Rosemary Lavery for all of their work to make the evening run smoothly.

The final event of the 50th Anniversary weekend was the special Mass on Sunday, May 4th. Fr. Rob Brennan, S.J. (affectionately known as Padre to most Brebeufians) captured perfectly the spirit of Brebeuf and its first 50 years in a moving homily. Following Mass a number of local dignitaries presented plaques to Principal Anthony Azzopardi to mark the 50th Anniversary. To learn more about these celebrations, please see the pictures of pages 4-8 of this newsletter.

The 50th Anniversary would not have been possible without the very generous financial support of numerous alumni including:

Gold Sponsors:

- Arrow Capital Management Inc.
- (Jim McGovern '81 & Mark Purdy '82)
- Empire Communities (Dan Guizzetti '83 & Andrew Guizzetti '86)
- Freedom 55 Financial (Peter Gillespie '85)
- The Corso Family (John Corso '88)
- Miller Paving/The Miller Group (Blair McArthur '80)

Silver Sponsor:

- TLN (Aldo Di Felice '81)

Bronze Sponsors:

- Ideological (Andre Vittorio '95)
- MDS Chartered Accountants (Michael DesLauriers '84)
- Williams and Partners Forensic Accountants (Rob Pellegrini '80)

Many alumni took a leadership role in helping organizing this event, in particular all of the members of the alumni executive, who worked in close cooperation with the Brebeuf staff, student council and administration as well as the CSAC (Parents Advisory council). Special thanks to Mike Da Costa '92 for his tireless efforts behind the scenes and in particular for the spectacular 50th Anniversary 'slide show' that beautifully captured the essence of Brebeuf.

Many thanks to all, in particular all of the year reps and all of the members, and happy 50th!

Paul McKernan '69 sent in the following note regarding the passing of classmate Bob Carty:

Very sad to hear of Bob Carty's passing. As I recall, Bob's family came to Canada in the late 50's from Cuba.

With his brother Ken, Bob attended St Edwards, then Brebeuf where his involvement in social issues of the day included the "Don't Buy California Grapes" movement to protest the employment standards in California at that time.

He played guitar and was a key member of the Brebeuf musical quartet that also included future international opera star, Catherine Robbin. They led we students on numerous occasions with "This Land is your Land", "Men of Brebeuf" and other songs of the era.

I shall not fail to mention that Bob was an excellent scholar and led his cohort at or near the top year after year.

Sincere condolences to Bob's family, friends, colleagues and admirers from his work in social justice and journalism.

In Memory: D'Arcy Hart '76

There have been many brilliant students at Brebeuf, but the class of '76 can make a strong case that the brightest was Dr. D'Arcy Hart, who died on August 6, 2014 from a brain tumour. A mathematical genius, D'Arcy breezed through Brebeuf academics with many 100%'s. He used the extra time and his ferocious discipline to become a first rate cross country runner and starting basketball guard, especially pleasing to him after not making the Bantam team in grade nine. And to compensate for not making that team, while at U of Toronto he coached the 1980 Brebeuf Bantams to the TDCAA championship finals.

As we all expected D'Arcy became a physicist who among his accomplishments did work for NASA that I cannot describe satisfactorily, as D'Arcy was notoriously brief in explaining what he did. One of his projects was managing the payload for micro-gravity experiments on the International Space Station. "So you forklift the payload on the rocket?" I asked. "No" he replied and that's about all I know.

D'Arcy was also a talented musician and I was privileged to witness his wedding dance, an intricately choreographed Scott Joplin routine that must have lasted 10 minutes and still ranks as the funniest thing I have ever seen. As successful as he was in science, he was even more successful in his life as a husband of 28 years to Lucy and father to Kathleen and Shannon.

Martin Foy '82 Memorial Scholarship

At the June, 2014 graduation ceremonies the inaugural Martin Foy Scholarship was awarded to Adithya Raharjo, Class of 2014.

Through the efforts of the Foy family and several of Martin's classmates, this $1,000 scholarship will be awarded on an annual basis to a graduating student in the Specialist Program in Information and Communications Technology at Brebeuf. Through his high school years at Brebeuf, university, and his career, Martin overcame many challenges and created his own success through hard work, persistence, and integrity. The scholarship recipient will have demonstrated outstanding effort, determination, perseverance, and integrity in completing the course work in this specialist program and will have been accepted to a post-secondary education program for the following academic year. Adithya is a very worthy recipient of this inaugural scholarship.

B.C. Premier Christy Clark awarding the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal to Dr. Evandro Lopes.

Dr. Evan Lopes '82

was recently awarded the "Exemplary Service Medal" for his work with Correction Service Canada from the Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia at a special reception. This award was in recognition of his work with Corrections Canada and is the highest civic award that department bestows. It is Correction Canada's highest civic award. Evan was also recognized with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal in 2013 for his clinical work in Neuropsychology.

Michel Poole '70 currently teaches at Viator Catholic High school in Taichung City, Taiwan.

Jamie Stafford '82 is a Professor and the Chair of the Department of Statistical Sciences at the University of Toronto. Some of his areas of research include Asymptotics, Biostatistics, Computer Algebra, and Smoothing. Over his career he has taught at Oxford University, the University of Chicago, the University of Western Ontario, and Stanford University. From 2003 to 2009 Jamie acted as a Director at the National Institute for Complex Data Structures. Jamie set and held several school track and cross country records that lasted many years. He continues to be an avid runner, and is a fine example of sound body, mind and soul!

Kevin Turlo '03 sends word that he is working as an account sales manager at RRSCo Energy Inc. Among his colleagues are two other Brebeuf alumni: Peter Stepien '02 is the senior estimator and Matthew Loong '08 is a project coordinator. RESCo Energy is Canada's largest solar energy EPCM firm.

Mark Vosylius '79 graduated from York in 1985 with a B.A., Mark then worked in the music business for 18 years and patented a distortion-less speaker system. After selling his business in 2002, he started Valour Capital, an asset management company in real estate and now works in finance, developing commercial and residential projects.

Alumni News:

Fr. Owen Keenan '91 was ordained for the Archdiocese of Toronto in 2002. He was assigned to a parish in Mississauga until 2004, when Cardinal Ambrozic sent him to Rome to get a Licentiate in canon law (2004-2007). Since 2009, he has been working at the Vatican Secretariat of State, first with Pope Benedict XVI and now with Pope Francis. His original five year contract has been extended for at least two more years. In his spare time, he is working on a doctoral thesis in canon law at the Pontifical Gregorian University. Last year he had the great privilege of spending a day with some current Brebeufians and their teachers in Rome.

Bill Letterio '81 is a professor at Seneca College and a Deacon for the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Toronto. He currently resides in Whitby with his wife and children.

Frank MacGrath, class of 1982

No other alumnus has demonstrated the level of commitment and dedication to Brebeuf as Frank has shown in the more than 30 years since he graduated. Upon graduating in 1982, Frank first served on the Alumni Association Executive, chaired the 25th Anniversary celebrations and became Alumni Chairman in 1986, leading the alumni from its infancy to a mature and relevant constituency within the Brebeuf community. Through Frank's leadership, the Alumni Association created the Brebeuf Futures Foundation to raise significant funds for Brebeuf and helped establish several scholarships. Frank has also served as an advisor to the last six Principals and continues to be a pillar of the Brebeuf community.

Edwards James "Jim" Barry

A founding staff member and Brebeuf teaching legend (1963 – 1995) Jim Barry is regarded as one of Brebeuf's finest and most memorable teachers, renowned for his enthusiasm and dedication, his creativity and encouragement, and his success in building men of character. As Dennis Tobin '79 noted in his nomination "Mr. Barry taught us in unusual ways". Jim is a coach, an educator, an actor, author, a devoted family man and an inspiration to so many. A dedicated volunteer with Jean Vanier's L'ARCHE community and the Cancer Society, Jim continues to mentor many young teachers looking for assistance. Jim gave Brebeuf the tradition of Triple Bronze, a fabled hockey championship, a legacy of teaching excellence and so much more.
