BREBEUF COLLEGE SCHOOL NEWSLETTER – FEBRUARY 2019

PRINCIPAL'S REFLECTIONS

Derek Chen

It feels like only yesterday that we started the semester, and yet here we are already in semester two.

Since the last newsletter, we had our annual Used Clothing Drive, where another record amount of clothing was donated to the school. Our Can-Aid campaign was also a huge success with hundreds of cans brought in. We also got to see the fun Kiss-a-Fish event, featuring members of the staff kissing a fish. Ms. Kim had the pleasure of kissing a fish this year!

Brebeuf's annual Social Justice Symposium took place on the theme "Forced Migration" and featured an incredible keynote speaker. December also featured our students' musical and artistic talents at the annual Christmas Arts Fest. Our elementary feeder schools once again got a taste of Brebeuf's musical talent, as Mr. Found and his jazz bands performed Christmas concerts for these students. Finally, the transformational Kairos Retreat took place, with approximately 40 students participating.

January was a quiet month, as students were busy studying for exams. As well, our Gr.9 math students completed the EQAO Math Test.

As usual, our athletics programme has been extremely successful. Our Sr. Hockey team is currently in the playoffs after clinching second place in the East Division. Our Non-Contact Hockey team placed first overall in the TDCAA and have made it to the semi-finals. Our Jr. Basketball team had a terrific season, while the Sr. Basketball team head into playoffs. Our Swim team is practising hard for the TDCAA Regional Competition, and our Jr. Volleyball, Track and Field, and Badminton teams are starting up their seasons.

Our clubs and committees continue to thrive, with the Reach for the Top team competing in multiple games, and students competing in the DECA Business competition.

Before mid-terms, we look forward to Winter Activity Day (joint with St. Joseph Morrow Park), SAC Spirit Week, our second Town Hall, Lenten Reconciliation, a performance at the National Theatre School Festival, the Rome Pilgrimage, and students participating in the Ireland Leadership Trip.

As always, special thanks to our Catholic School Parent Council (CSPC), led by our new Chair, Mr. Mario Duran, and Vice Chair, Ms. Cristina Martins. We truly appreciate their support!

Have a wonderful Family Day! God bless.

The Relations is the official newsletter of

Brebeuf College School

It is named for the letters that St. Jean de Brebeuf and his Jesuit colleagues sent home to France in the 17th Century. Its aim is to share much of the good news coming from the school.

MEN FOR OTHERS

HELPING THE POOR

Brebeuf students and staff continue to help the homeless and poor through many initiatives that foster the "Men and Women for Others" ethos of the school.

Every Thursday, Mr. Guy brings students to St. Francis Table in Parkdale, where they prepare food for those in need homeless.

Students from Brebeuf, SJMP, and Loretto going to Ireland during March Break held a sleepover at the school on Feb. 2-3. Part of the experience was making sandwiches for the poor along Queen Street. They ended up at the Good Shepherd Refuge where all remaining food and clothing was donated.

The annual Can Aid food drive raised many thousands of canned goods for the Good Shepherd Refuge. This has been a Brebeuf tradition since 1984.

Sixteen families in our local community were given “Beuf Boxes” of donated Christmas toys, clothes, and gift cards. All of the items were donated through homeroom drives for this worthy initiative.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SYMPOSIUM

Brebeuf organized and hosted its fifteenth annual Social Justice Symposium for Catholic high school students at the University of St Michael's College on December 6. Three hundred students and teachers from twenty schools gathered for Mass and to listen to Emily Pittman from Development and Peace speak on the topic of forced migrations. Students also had the opportunity to attend various workshops run by social justice proponents and volunteers. It was a meaningful day for all involved.

NEIL GAZELEY REMEMBERED

By Frank MacGrath '82 (Alumni Chairman)

Brebeuf recently lost one of its “founding fathers”. On November 14 at the age of 91, O’Neil Patrick Gazeley passed away.

Working in close collaboration with Brebeuf’s first Principal, Fr. Robert Meagher, Neil helped to establish Brebeuf College School in 1963 and served as its first Vice-Principal. At the time of his appointment, Neil was the first lay person to serve as a Vice-Principal at a Jesuit high school anywhere in the world. Over the next twenty-eight years during his lengthy tenure as Vice-Principal, Neil helped transform a brand-new school into a leading academic institution.

Neil was primarily responsible for establishing many long standing Brebeuf traditions, including helping to create the Brebeuf motto and the school crest and helping to establish Brebeuf’s dedication to service, faith and academic excellence. Neil’s steady leadership also helped facilitate the transition of the school administration at Brebeuf from the Jesuit Fathers to the Presentation Brothers in 1984.

By the time of his retirement in 1991, Neil had helped transform Brebeuf into one of the best Catholic high schools in Canada. Since his retirement, Neil maintained an active relationship with Brebeuf and was a regular attendee at many school events and alumni reunions over the years, most often accompanied by his close friend and long-time teaching colleague E.J. “Jim” Barry.

When word spread of Neil’s illness earlier this year, many alumni and former staff took time to reach out to Neil and his family by email and letter. Neil took great comfort in hearing from so many former students and graduates, including more than a few former students whose interactions with “Mr. Gazeley” as students often took place in JUGs (detentions) for some sort of disciplinary reason. All those alumni shared a very similar sentiment – how much of an impact Neil Gazeley had had on their lives and how much he had influenced Brebeuf College School.

Hundreds of alumni, from the earliest years of Brebeuf and throughout more recent decades, attended Neil’s visitation and funeral as did numerous current and former staff members. At the funeral Mass on November 19, Fr. Winston Rye, S.J., who worked closely with Neil during his tenure as Principal (1978-84) talked of Neil’s service and dedication to Brebeuf and how he exemplified the meaning of being “a man for others”. Fittingly, two Brebeuf graduates, Fr. Ian Riswick ’76 and Fr. Larry Leger ’82, helped to concelebrate the Mass.

When Neil was inducted as the very first member of the Order of St. Jean de Brebeuf in 2012, his many contributions to Brebeuf and to Catholic education were summarized as follows : “Many, many people have contributed to Brebeuf’s success over the past fifty years, but no single individual has had more of a lasting impact on this school than Neil Gazeley”. Some fifty-five years after Neil did so much to help establish Brebeuf and truly “build” our school, it was truly fitting that the Brebeuf community gathered en masse to bid farewell to a man whose example and influence helped shape so many of our lives.

VIRTUES OF THE MONTH

As a Catholic school, Brebeuf promotes Christian virtues in all living and learning experiences. Each month one virtue is highlighted, and teachers recommend students who have clearly demonstrated the virtues in the classroom, on the playing fields, and in the community. Congratulations to all those recognized with certificates.

SCHOOL NEWS

BREBEUF STUDENT FINISHES TOP 25 IN PSYCHATHLON

By Rosanna Calabretta
Head of Canadian and World Studies

During November, several grade 12 students participated in the University of Guelph-Humber Psychathlon. The Psychathlon is an opportunity for students across Ontario to write a timed, multiple choice psychology test and earn scholarship money to be used toward post-secondary tuition. Miguel Ilustre in grade 12 wrote the test and scored in the top 25 of all students who participated in the Psychathlon across the province. Miguel was invited to attend the University of Guelph-Humber for a congratulatory lunch, campus tour, and psychology panel discussion. Congratulations Miguel; Brebeuf is "Psyched" by your success!

GRADE 12 LAW STUDENTS VISIT THE SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE

On January 11, the grade 12 law students took a field trip the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, located on University Avenue in downtown Toronto. The students spent the day observing various trials and speaking with Crown and defence lawyers, court personnel, and judges. They even had the opportunity to sit in the seats of a real courtroom as though they were the key players in a criminal trial! The class enjoyed the day and experience overall.

SCIENCE FAIR

By Matthew Vidov (Gr. 12)

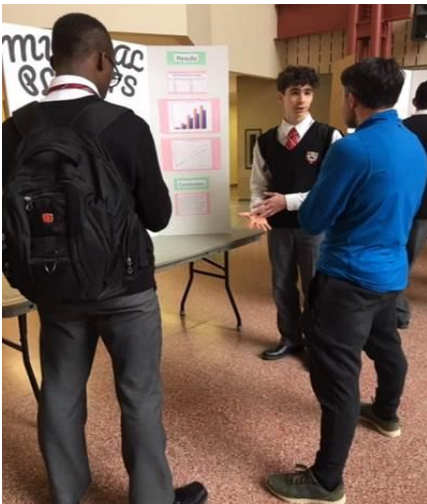

On Friday, January 18, 2019, Brebeuf College held its first in-school science fair event for students in many years. Involving both juniors and seniors, the students worked for eight weeks to research a topic, conduct their own experiments if possible, and prepare a poster and presentation on it. Their posters were displayed in the atrium during both lunches, where student and teacher judges criticized their work.

This event was a new initiative brought about by the science department head, our teacher Ms. Llupo. As the lead judge for the science fair, I am proud to say that the event was a success. It was an opportunity for all the students involved; for me, it presented an opportunity to practise leadership, and for the students who did research it was a great learning experience. For a brand new initiative, the science fair ran remarkably smoothly. Ms. Llupo has plans to run this event again next year, on a larger scale.

To support students in the process of developing their projects, participants had a chance to speak with Dr. Gabriel Ayyavoo, an adjunct professor at the University of Ontario Institute of Technology. In addition, students spoke with graduate students from the University of Toronto to get a perspective into what research in a real science setting is like. Participants of the science fair were provided some great opportunities to experience science in a new and interesting way.

In the words of Ms. Llupo: “The Science Fair is a great opportunity for the students to research, experiment, engage and learn from the lens of a scientist.”

The testimonies of students involved in the science fair agree with this conclusion. “The science fair gave us a chance to experience learning through hands on activity,” says Amir Karimzadgan, a Grade 9 student who presented his project in the atrium. “I really enjoyed the experience of explaining my research to the teachers and other students. I had fun presenting my findings and explaining how they could be useful. The process was enjoyable because I picked a topic I was interested in,” the words of John Hanna, a senior student involved in the event. Students were encouraged to pursue their interests – and make something practical out of them. The project topics ranged from research on neuroplasticity to finding a way to make energy out of Mentos gum.

Overall, the science fair was a welcome innovation for Brebeuf’s science department. It helped greatly to foster the intrigue that drives scientific research in the real world. This is essential for our future, which always needs more scientists to make the next breakthrough. To conclude, a quote from Edward Teller: “The science of today is the technology of tomorrow.”

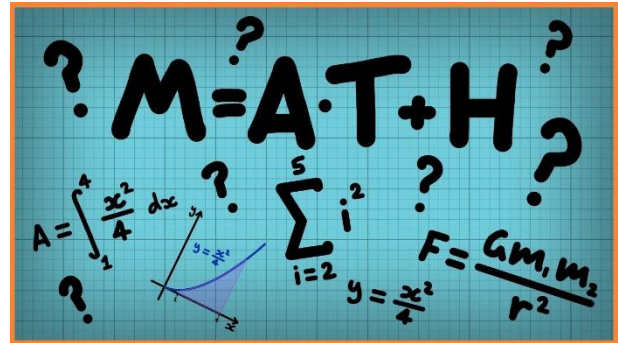

CAREER DAY

An old Brebeuf tradition has been revived – Career Day! On February 13, all Grade 9 and 10 students have the opportunity to hear from alumni and community members speak about their professions and answer students’ questions. This is an excellent way for students to see what others have done with their Brebeuf education and to network with alumni and the community. Thanks to Ms. Marino and Ms. Zeppieri for organizing. Thanks also to the Alumni Association for providing most of the speakers for the day.

MATH UPDATE

By Mr. Brad Ryan
Head of Mathematics

This year, 2018-2019 the Advanced Placement Mathematics programme is well on track toward helping over 160 boys excel at high level mathematics. In Semester 2, there will be one pre-AP Grade 9 class that is now full and has several boys waiting to get in. At the Grade 10 level, there are two pre-AP classes, one in Semester 1 and one in Semester 2 preparing for the all-important Grade 11 year. At the Grade 11 level, there is a class of 31 boys, who have finished the Grade 11 course at the mid-term, have just finished the Grade 12 Advanced Functions course by January 16, and are now starting University Calculus while they are still in the Grade 11 course. It is this class that will stay in mathematics for the whole year in order to prepare for the AP Calculus AB exam in May of 2019. So far, they look like a strong class and I am hoping for good results in AP Calculus from these dedicated boys. At the Grade 12 level, there is one Calculus and Vectors section that has finished all work with vectors, have reviewed all first year University Calculus, have finished most of second year University Calculus and are now looking at Differential Equations. They have the option of writing the AP Calculus BC exam in May, and I would expect that most of them would be able to obtain near perfect on the exam if they choose to do so. I am most proud of all these students and commend them for their hard work and effort toward achieving excellence in Mathematics.

BROTHER HENRY HONOURED

Brebeuf congratulates Brother Henry Spencer for being accorded the Sovereign's Medal for Volunteers by the Governor-General. This is in recognition of Brother's many decades of service to Brebeuf, the Out of the Cold programme, the veterans of Sunnybrook Hospital, and the Indigenous community on Christian Island. Brother continues to inspire all to be Men and Women for Others.

MO-BREB WINTER ACTIVITY DAY

Brebeuf and St. Joseph's Morrow Park are once again holding a co-ed Winter Activity Day on Friday, March 1. There will be thirty activities to choose from, including bowling, skating, hockey, the aquarium, baking, basketball, and giving food to the homeless. We know that this day helps to strength bonds of friendship between the students and the two schools.

Students will be given permission forms on February 6 and they are due by February 13. All boys are expected to sign up for an activity; please encourage them to participate.

Brebeuf's concert band performs at the annual Christmas ArtsFest under the direction of Mr. Dan Found.
